TIMES-VIRGINIAN

(Christmas Lesson)

FOREST VIEW

After all our winter weather we are having some pretty days.

People are preparing their wood and butchering, getting ready for the Xmas holidays—but there is so much sickness around and about it is hard to feel like the holidays are so near.

Our school at Petty's Fork closes next Friday for the holidays with a Christmas program in the evening.

The folk around here have been marketing their tobacco and receiving satisfactory prices.

The roads are in very good condition around here and it is hoped they will continue so.

We understand Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Marshall have moved near Lynchburg and little Floyd Trent has gone with his father.

Floyd Trent near Wesley Chapel, also Mr. and Mrs. Otey Jones, who lived with Mr. B. N. Tanner the past year, have moved back to their old home near W. T. Nash's.

Mr. Pierce, of Richmond, is getting to be a frequent visitor in the home of R. W. Martin. Some attraction!

We understand Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Marshall have arrived to live among us again, after living north for two years.

We knew they could not be contented away from Appomattox County, and we welcome them home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Galladay of Buffalo Station, spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Marshall.

Mrs. R. W. Martin is better, after being very much indisposed for several days.

It is with regret we learn of the serious condition of Mr. M. W. Hargis, of Glendale. If it is the Lord's will he will be restored to his family.

Also we learn Mrs. Davis Martin, of Penn., is gradually weakening away.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martin spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Woolridge.

News was received in the Har home of her sister's illness, Mrs. Hendrick in Penn., a few days ago. Miss Emma Har has been with her several days and reports her condition better. We hope she will continue to improve. Mrs. Hendrick's daughter, Evelyn, was in a serious condition also. She had a fall and struck her head or temple and was unconscious at times, but she is improving also, and we are glad to learn.

We wish a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year to every reader of this paper and especially the editor.

WOODLAND

Mr. Oscar Cheatham and family spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Collier near Phenix.

Misses Celene, Virginia and Mary Woodson and Catherine Caldwell spent Saturday in Lynchburg doing their Christmas shopping.

Dr. Bernie Bloxton, of Richmond was a week-end visitor in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Woodson.

CHAP

Dear Mr. Editor:—Here come again asking for a little space in your paper this week.

You know the good book says to "Not Weary in Well-doing," so I am hoping this will amount to much.

The ladies of Central church will serve a dinner including oysters Friday, December 27, at 11 o'clock, at which time the said Creditors may attend, prove their claims, appoint a Trustee, examine the Bankrupt and transact such other business as may properly come before the said meeting.

LEON GOODMAN, Special Referee in Bankruptcy. December 13, 1929.

In The District Court of the United States For The Western District of Virginia.

In the matter of J. M. Ferguson, Bankrupt.

To the creditors of the above named Bankrupt:

NOTICE is hereby given that the above named Bankrupt has been adjudicated, and the first meeting of the Creditors will be held at my office in Lynchburg on December 30, 1929, at 11:30 a.m., at which time the said Creditors may attend, prove their claims, appoint a Trustee, examine the Bankrupt and transact such other business as may properly come before the said meeting.

LEON GOODMAN, Special Referee in Bankruptcy. December 14, 1929.

Run-Down

"About seven years ago, I was all run-down, worn-out and never felt good," says Mrs. Harry C. Gaudin, of Cape Girardeau, Mo.

"A chair would be more welcome any time than my run-down body."

"I was so tired when I would arise in the morning, I could not get out of bed. I felt terrible."

"At last, mother told me to take Cardui, and I did. After the first bottle, I felt better. After the third bottle, I felt like a different person. I felt like a new woman. I felt like I had been wonderfully handled by it."

Try Cardui for your troubles.
